DR. HERMAN A. HOYT

Dedication . . .

"A good name . . . a wise man . . . gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient . . . an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity . . . a man of understanding . . . peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy . . . of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord . . . slow to anger . . . patient toward all men . . . filled with the Spirit . . . filled with the fruits of righteousness . . . of an excellent spirit . . . sincere and without offense . . . a man that hath friends . . . steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord . . . perfect in every good work to do His will . . . in singleness of heart, fearing God . . . a faithful man . . . diligent . . . not slothful in business, fervent in Spirit, serving the Lord."

DR. ALVA J. McCLAIN

President . . .

"Bring with thee . . . the books, but especially the parchments." Thus wrote the Apostle Paul from his lonely cell in the Roman prison. Competent scholars suggest that the "parchments" were copies of portions of the Scriptures, and that the "books" were commentaries on the inspired Word of God, possibly from Paul's own private library. From this we may learn that he was a lover of books. Even in prison, facing almost certain death, he was concerned primarily with his reading and studies—a library in a prison cell! Here at Grace Seminary and College, a much more comfortable place, from the beginning we have been concerned with books: first, with the Book of books; and then around it those lesser but important books which illuminate the pages of divine revelation in both Scripture and Nature. And for all the students who pass through these halls, we are concerned that they too shall become and continue to be lovers and users of such books to the end of their days.

Alva J. McClain, Th.M., D.D., LL.D.

Presenting . . .

Grace Theological Seminary Winona Lake Indiana

... THE 1956 GRACE

Dear Reader:

As you open the pages of this book you will find herein a book of remembrance. For as your eye glides over each page, memories of this past school year will flow across your mind's eye. May these memories be happy ones.

Because our beloved President McClain is at present writing books; because Dr. Hoyt, to whom we dedicate this annual, is a student of books; and because a vital part of our school life is books, especially the Bible, the Book of all books, we of the 1956 GRACE annual staff have chosen Books for our theme. Books remind you of the godly faculty members who instructed you as well as the friends you made in the classes. Family devotions from the Bible will remind you of the spiritual blessings received in every phase of school life. A game book speaks of activities and a rule book reminds you of athletics.

The Books are your friends; let them take you back in memory to the good times, the happy times, and the blessed times at good old Grace Seminary and College.

Yours for memories' sake,
1956 Annual Staff

And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

Prayer and Praise

No student at Grace will ever forget the great emphasis laid upon prayer. We try to heed the Scripture exhortation "Pray without ceasing" because we believe and have seen that God answers prayer. Bob Munn, former graduate and now a missionary to France, spoke at the convocation service on Isa. 41:10, "Looking Unto Jesus." At this service we sought the Lord's blessing as school opened in September. Great spiritual refreshment and inspiration has been ours as we have sought God's guidance by prayer.

An important feature in the life of each Middler is the day he preaches in chapel. Students look forward to the day with mixed emotions. It is an experience never to be forgotten and one that is of great value and blessing not only to the young preacher but also to the sympathetic audience.

Reading the "Word of Life" in a nursing home.

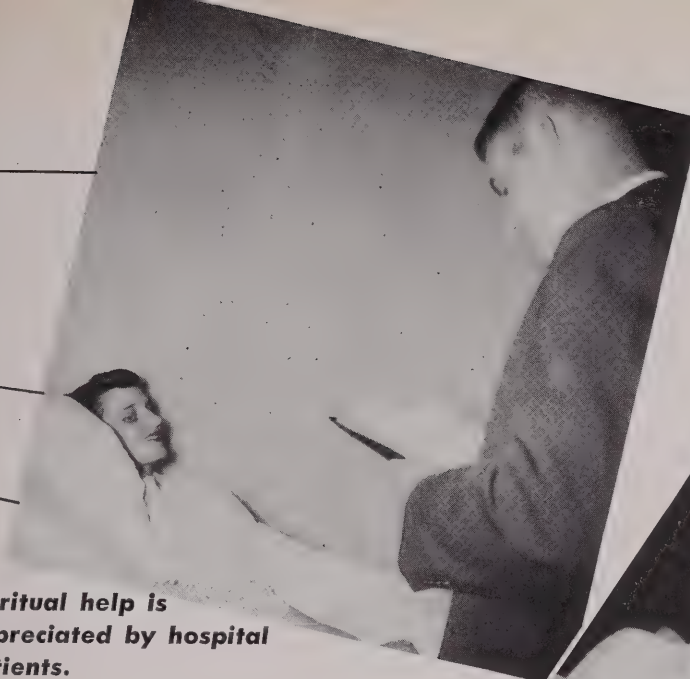

Various students take active part in street meetings on Saturday nights.

There is no better time for students to begin a helpful and practical testimony than in their early and formative years. This will not only provide a useful outlet for things learned in the classroom but it will also make a spiritual contribution to society and the Lord's work.

There are a number of Student-Pastors in the school. Giving forth the Word of Life is a vital part of Seminary training. Other students take an active part in the surrounding churches as songleaders, teachers, youth directors, and substitute preaching.

PRACTICAL WORKS

Spiritual help is appreciated by hospital patients.

Students are urged to go out on Gospel teams. As students train now, it will help them be prepared later for the Lord's full time service.

An effective witness for Christ through the tract ministry.

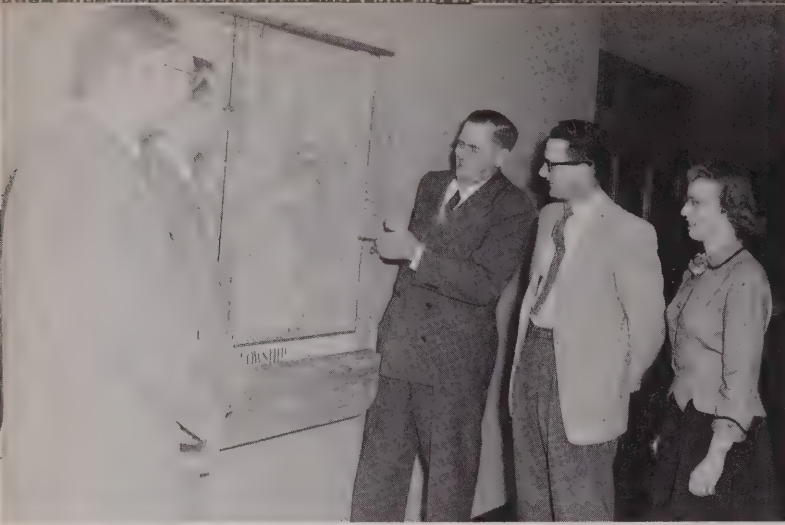

Among the Gospel teams traveling into Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana are the Grace Ambassadors composed of Bob and Dick Messner and Nancy Weber, their accompanist. They present various "musical packages" of both vocal and instrumental numbers. Their greatest opportunity is in young people's meetings or rallies. The blessings are manifold as Christ honors the Word as it goes forth and souls are saved.

World Missions Fellowship

Every Tuesday evening at 7:00, a group of interested students gathered in the chapel to hear a preaching challenge concerning one of the mission fields of the world. Designated the "informational meeting," these services provide up-to-the-minute facts from the far corners of the globe. Speakers during the year presented the needs of Africa, France, Germany, Greece, India, Japan, Brazil, Argentina, as well as others.

Two scenes taken at the Informational Meetings.

Perhaps the most important responsibility the student has toward missions is prayer. Daily at twelve noon, students assemble to pray for N. America, S. America, Europe, Africa, and Asia. Each group is headed by a leader interested in the field.

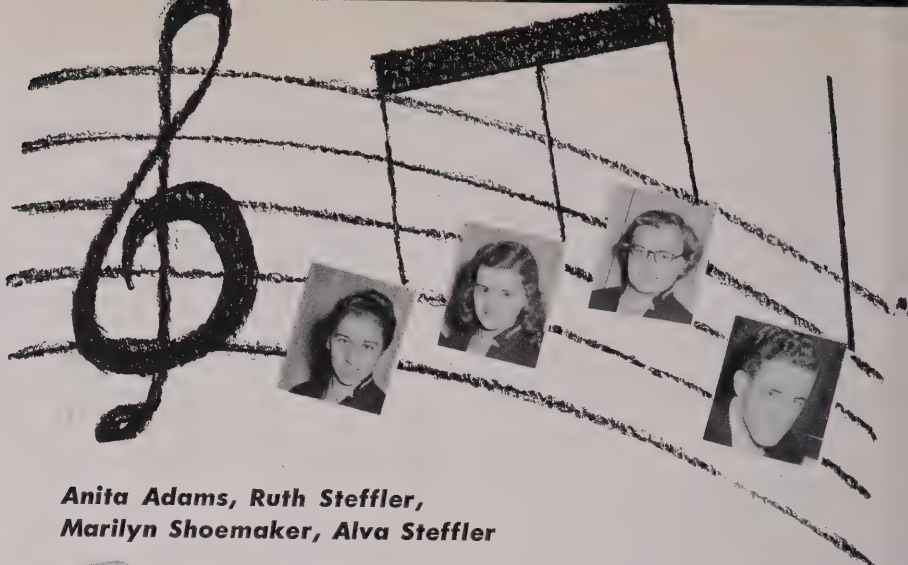

Three scenes from the daily Intercession Meetings held in the chapel.

"Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." Many are called to the far corners of the earth; many are called to remain here at home; but all are called to hold the ropes for those who have gone forth. This is the purpose of World Mission Fellowship—to provide challenging messages concerning various mission fields and to use the power line of prayer intelligently for those who have gone forth.

The purpose of World Mission Fellowship is being met and the Great Commission is being obeyed by praying, giving, and going. In addition to the weekly Information Meetings, and the daily Intercession Meetings, several projects were undertaken during the year. A few of these were: sending Christmas cards to all the missionaries, and purchasing athletic equipment for the Bible Institute in Africa. W.M.F. provides a valuable outlet in the spiritual lives of the students.

Mixed Ensemble

A 16 voice Mixed Ensemble, together with its pianist and director, added two legs to the Choir's concert schedule this year by invading the states of Ohio and Iowa on two successive weekends in January. Over a total of 7 days, 1900 miles rolled under the tires of each of the three cars, and 10 Brethren churches royally entertained the ambitious itinerates.

Grace College Choir

38 college students were selected by audition at the beginning of the first semester to make up the 1955-56 Grace College Choir. A fun-loving and hard working group, the Choir met regularly two hours each week for practice, with many a called session for final touches just prior to performances.

They made three public appearances during the first semester, one off-campus, and the other two in special Thanksgiving and Christmas services in the College and Seminary Chapel.

The highlight of the year for the Choir was a 12 day tour over the Easter season, which took 24 of the songsters into 16 Brethren churches of the East. A number of additional concerts were presented on succeeding Sundays in Indiana Churches.

ALUMNI

This year's alumni conference was bigger and better than ever before, in spite of a last minute change of dates and the year's heaviest snowfall. Alumni gathered from Indiana, Ohio, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and many other sections of the country to renew old friendships and form new ones. They also had the privilege of hearing the Bauman Memorial Lectures, given this year by Dr. Wilbur M. Smith. Another important feature of the week was an alumni banquet at the Westminster Hotel and the decision to provide outdoor lighting for our campus. The alumni are a great inspiration to every student, for, with their testimonies of how God is using them, they make us eager to finish our work and be out serving the Lord in a greater way. But they remind us also that careful preparation is essential and so they encourage us to study harder.

the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him.

Faculty Reception

After a week of renewing friendships and relating the latest "This is the best one yet . . .", all the students are invited to get acquainted with the faculty. Naturally, all attend—especially when hearing that refreshments will be served.

Student Council

SEATED: Charles Winters, Doug Cassel—Seminary Activities Director, Dorothy C. Crees—Secretary, Ted Franchino—College Activities Director, Ron Henry, Don Locke—President.
STANDING: Bruce Baker, Roy Dice—Vice President, Earnest Bearing, Tom Julien, George Cripe, Harold Fuller.

The Student Council, taking its motto from the Bible—"Let all things be done decently and in order," seeks to exalt Christ Jesus. Its main function is to put into action plans or programs beneficial to both students and school. Two outstanding accomplishments were the purchase of uniforms for the basketball team and a gift of $1,500 to the school from the student body.

Planned and led by Doug Cassel and Ted Franchino, the school has had various all-school parties and activities throughout the year. Fellowship, fun and food were enjoyed by all as it provided a means of relaxation from the classroom and collateral.

All School

Jim Sweeton (Seminary Activities Director) and Ted Franchino (College Activities Director) met together during the summer to lay the ground-work for a Fall Retreat that would be "Different." In the past, this day of furious activity had been conducted at various near-by recreational areas, but for certain reasons it was decided that we would "stay at home" this year.

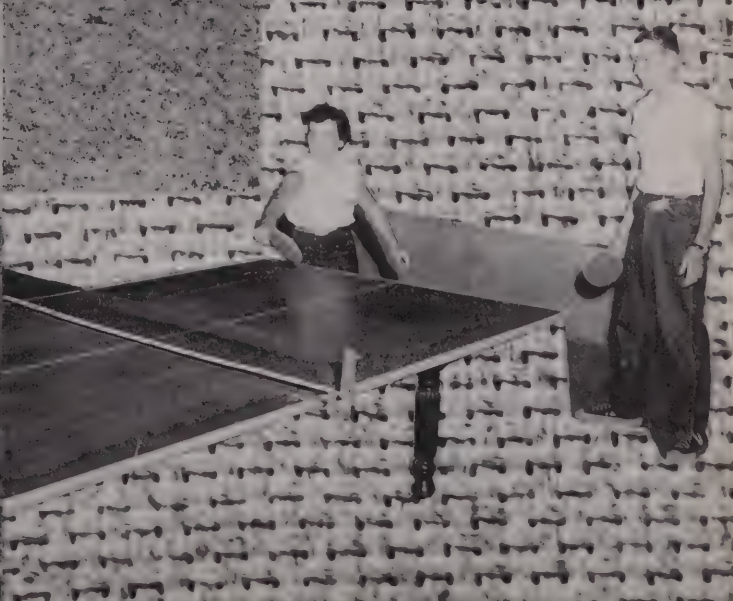

In addition to the facilities of the School, the Winona Lake Christian Assembly graciously offered the use of their property and equipment. The entire school, including faculty and staff, was divided into two competing teams in preparation for a real "Junior Olympics."

Fall Retreat

The activities ranged from shuffleboard for the quieter types, included horseshoes, softball, golf, ping pong, volley-ball, tennis, miniature golf, track events for men and women, and finally for the more heroic two six-man football games.

At noon we met together by teams for a "family-style" lunch in the WLCA Cafeteria, which had been undergoing quite a face-lifting all morning, as representatives of the two teams vied for the points to be awarded the best decorations. A series of skits completed the activities of the day, and when the final tally was made, the team led by Willa Leidy and Dick Messner had defeated the team of Janet Weber and Doug Cassel by a comfortable margin. In retrospect it may be said that "a good time was had by all," also, the sale of linament hit an all-time high the next day.

Artist Series

One of the most delightful avenues to education at Grace is the Concert and Artist Series. At these formal evening concerts we relax and enjoy some of the finest of music brought to us by men and women who are accomplished in the arts. Thus, while we indulge in a form of recreation we broaden our range of interests by learning to recognize and appreciate the classics of the masters and the skills of outstanding performers.

This year's schedule brought to Grace the gifted Brass Quintet of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, as well as two well known Christian artists, Marimbist, Jack Conner, and Baritone soloist, Colin Bray.

Art Exhibits

A seven-day art exhibit featuring several local artists is now successful history for Grace College. The exhibit of about 40 paintings by nine artists was held in the lounge. On Fri., Dec. 2, these artists were honored at a reception given under the direction of the art department.

The Seminary Shower Committee plans the baby showers that are held monthly to honor seminary wives who are expecting "little ones." Those who served on the committee headed by Madelyn Johnson this year are: Barbara Amstutz, Marcella Baker, Joyce Evans, Joan Franchino, Irene Gallagher, Evelyn Hancock, Dorothy Huffman, Leona Matheny, Janet Miesel, Betty Platt, Audrey Sheley, Jean Snell, Janet Stover.

Seminary Wives Fellowship Groups

The meetings are held in the Seminary lounge on the second Wednesday of each month at 7:30 P.M. The meetings resemble as nearly as possible a three year course in Seminary designed especially for the women. The purpose is to give suggestions to future pastors' wives and missionaries to prepare them for their service and problems.

OFFICERS: Chairman—Mickey Kurtaneck.
Committee Members: Leona Matheny, Joyce Evans, Martha Campbell, Janice Miesel, Virginia Lockwood, Carol Hoffmeyer.

Intramurals

Under the direction of Coach Dick Messner, Grace enjoyed the first year of Organized Intramural Athletics. The fall season was devoted to touch football on the new athletic field east of the Seminary building. The winter months found the program center around table tennis in the auditorium of the Seminary building, and volley ball and basketball in the East Wayne Gym. The spring program returned to the athletic field for softball.

Varsity Basketball

Varsity Basketball returned to the Grace Campus for its second year. Coach Messner began practice early in November in anticipation of a tough 22 game schedule. Practice began with a nucleus of 6 returning regulars from last year and 6 new men.

This year's schedule was restricted to Colleges, Seminaries, and Bible Colleges.

The team's season record shows 11 wins and 11 losses.

GRACE BASKETBALL

The highlight of the Grace Ambassador's 1956 basketball season began January 28th as the team departed to tour several Eastern States. The first stop for the Grace group was in Findlay, Ohio, where the boys won their opener 104-96 against the Findlay Oiler "B" team.

The next day the team ministered in two churches en-route further East, Ashland, Ohio, and Listie, Pennsylvania. There were testimonies, music, and a message from God's Word given in each church.

By Monday the Ambassadors had reached Ringwood, New Jersey, and were the guests of Shelton College. Here the Red and White from Winona Lake won their second straight contest, 60-50.

Tuesday there was Princeton Seminary and Grace's first defeat on the tour to the tune of 93-59. By Wednesday the boys regained their winning ways and in an extremely exciting encounter with Philadelphia Bible Institute were victorious 70-69.

Across town the group of thirteen met their fifth opponent and won their fourth game 58-46, at Eastern Baptist Seminary. In Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Friday evening the Ambassadors were featured in a youth rally at the Melrose Garden Brethren Church and enjoyed a fine evening of fellowship. Saturday morning before leaving for Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, and their sixth game, the Grace group participated in a radio broadcast for thirty minutes.

The team closed their week of basketball losing their finals 87-60 to a locally highly rated Geneva College. Again on Sunday the boys carried on ministry in the Cleveland and Fremont, Ohio, churches to round out a busy but blessed nine day experience.
